RED SNAPPER COMMERCIAL FISHERY IN GULF OF MEXICO
FEDERAL WATERS WILL OPEN AT NOON, DECEMBER 1, 2004,
AND CLOSE AT NOON, DECEMBER 15, 2004

The National Marine Fisheries Service (NOAA Fisheries) announces that the commercial fishery for red snapper in Gulf of Mexico federal waters will open at noon, local time, on December 1, 2004, and close at noon, local time, on December 15, 2004. The commercial red snapper fishing season will then remain closed until noon, local time, on February 1, 2005. The 2004 Gulf of Mexico commercial red snapper quota is 4.65-million pounds. The commercial fishing season is divided into spring and fall seasons. The spring season began at noon, local time, on February 1, 2004, with 3.10 million pounds available, and the fall season began at noon, local time, on October 1, with the remainder of the annual quota available. During the spring and fall seasons, fishing will be allowed during the first 10 days of each month until the quota is caught. Preliminary landings for the 2004 spring season indicated that 3,112,337 pounds of red snapper were landed. Therefore, a total of 1,537,663 pounds remained in the quota for the fall season which began October 1, 2004.

Preliminary landings for October 1-10, 2004, totaled 418,961 pounds, and November 1-10, 2004, totaled 414,924 pounds for a total of 833,885 pounds of red snapper landed during the period. Therefore, a total of 703,778 pounds are available for the December 2004 commercial opening.

The operator of a vessel with a valid reef fish permit and a Class 1 or Class 2 red snapper license having red snapper aboard must have landed and sold such red snapper before noon, local time, on December 15, 2004. The minimum size limit for the commercial fishery is 15 inches total length.
